

2008 Fred L. Soper Award in Excellence in Health Nomination Form

Instructions: This form may be used to nominate a medical/public health research article that emphasizes regional impact in Latin America and the Caribbean. Upon the completion of this nomination form, send it, a letter of introduction (no more than one page), a clearly readable copy of the nominated article (the article will not be returned), and proof that the article appeared in a journal in 2007 and that it was cited in the 2007 Index Medicus to the Foundation. Unsigned documents will not be considered.

Submitted items other than the letter of introduction and the completed application form with check list will not be considered by the jury.

Nominations received after 16 June 2008 will not be accepted.

Incomplete entries will not be considered.

There is a strong preference for typed nomination forms.
